

Growing Industries, the Innovative STSP

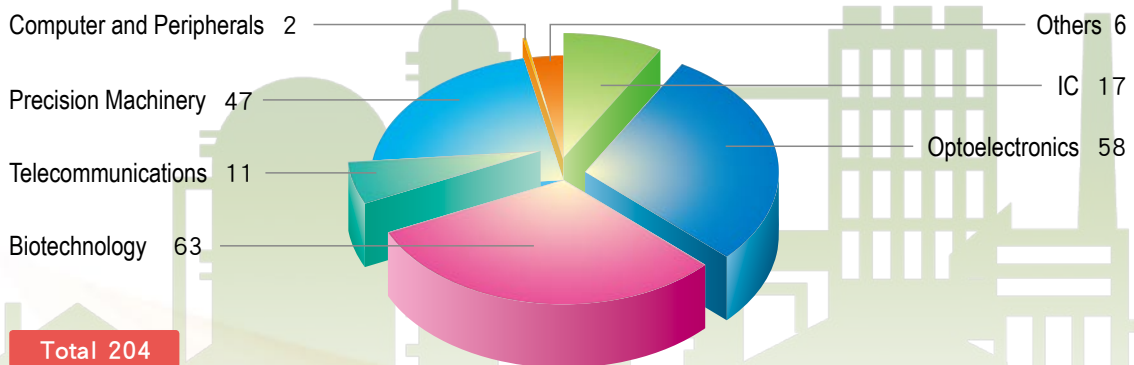

Superior Environment Attracting Continuous Investment Rush

With its superior environment, the STSP, in recent years, has continuously attracted the investment and presence of leading domestic and international enterprises. In 2015, there were 20 new Park enterprises (among them, four were startups) with an investment amount of NT$5.282 billion, and among them, 11 were built and 13 began mass production. By 2015, there were 204 approved Park enterprises indicating the continuous investment rush at the STSP.

Unit : the Number of Enterprises

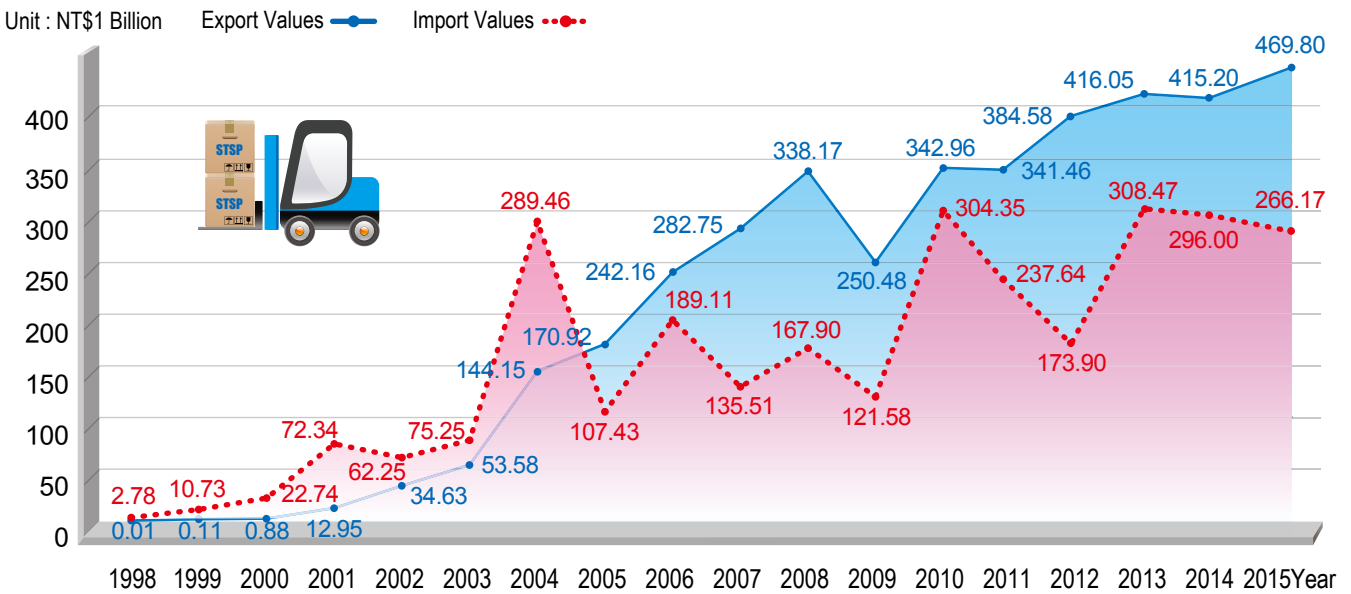

Total Effective Number of Approved Enterprises by Year

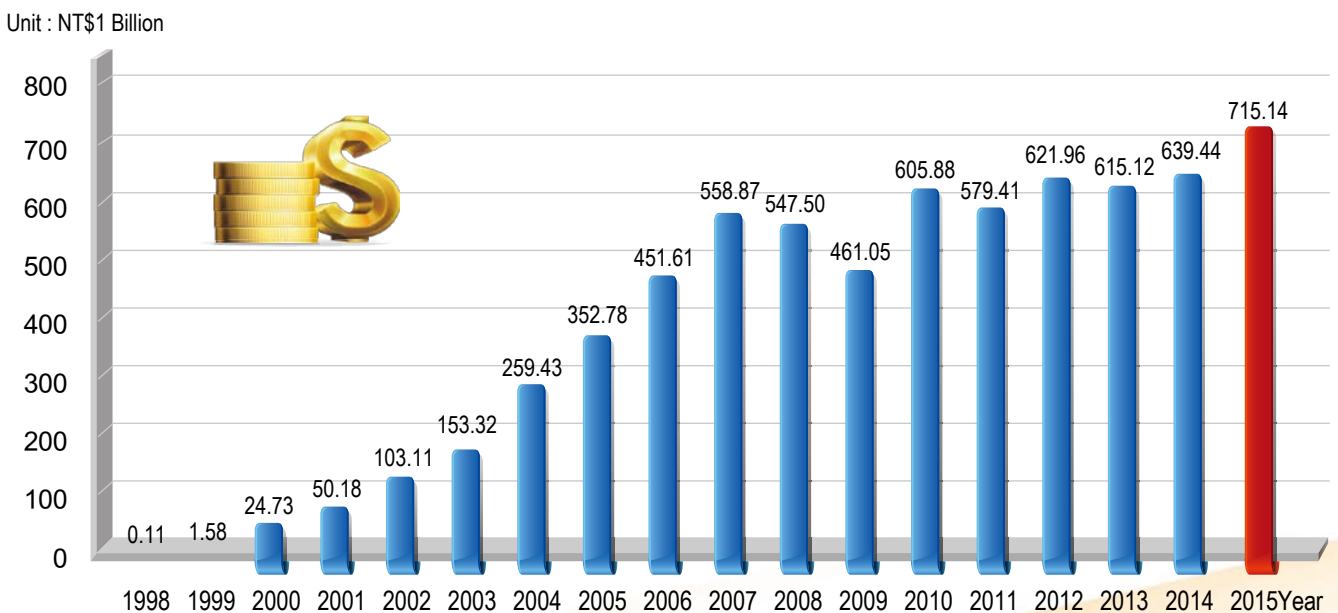

Total Effective Number of Approved Enterprises by Industry by the End of 2015

Soaring Turnover, Stable Trade Volume

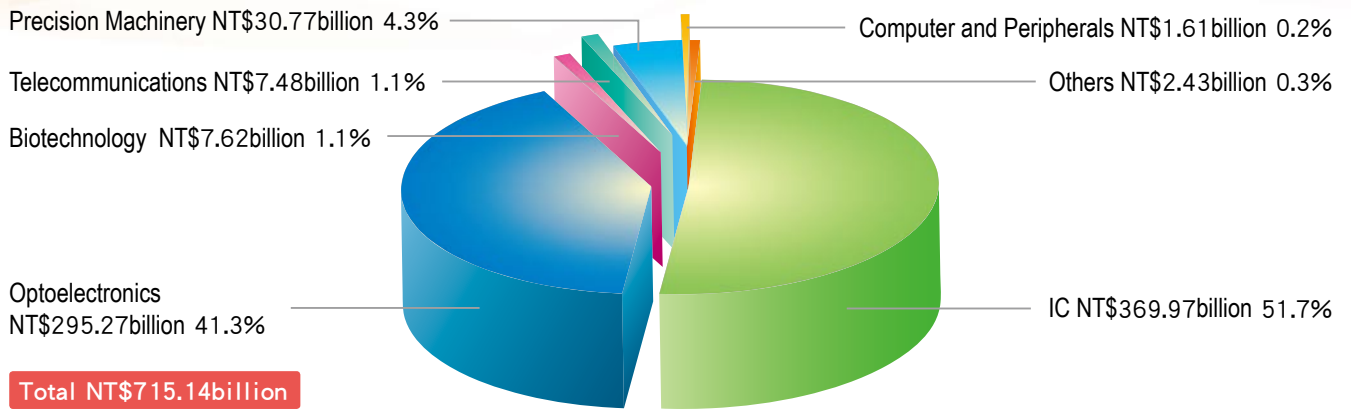

In 2015, the turnover of the STSP totaled NT$715.14 billion, a growth of 11.8% compared to that of 2014; the export volume reached NT$469.8 billion and the import volume was NT$266.17 billion contributing to the overall trade volume of NT$735.97 billion, a growth of 3.48% compared to that of 2014.

Import / Export Values by Year

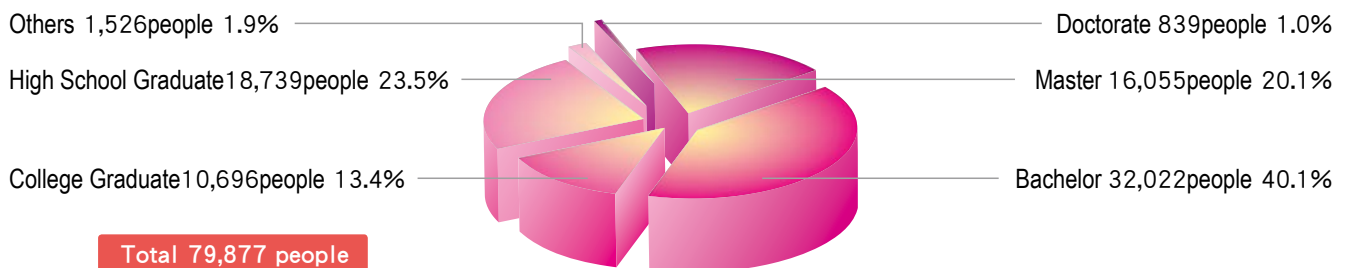

Turnover by Year

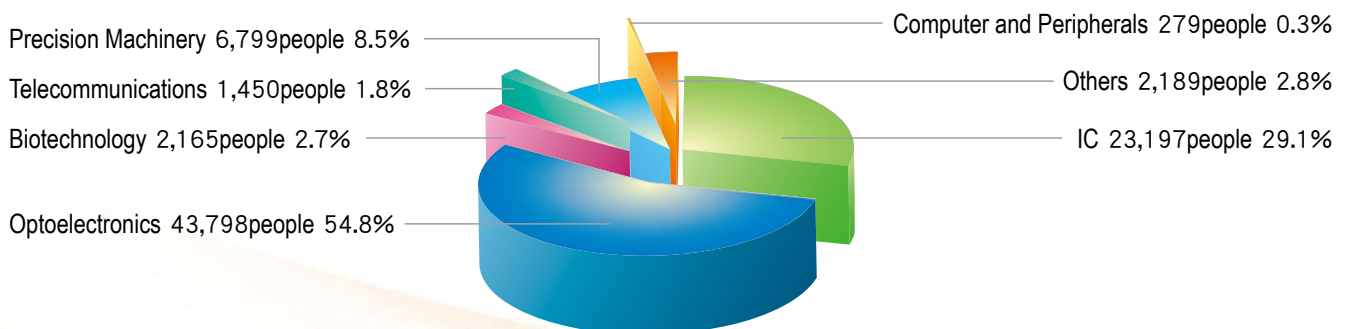

2015 Turnover by Industry

Talent Gathering at the STSP

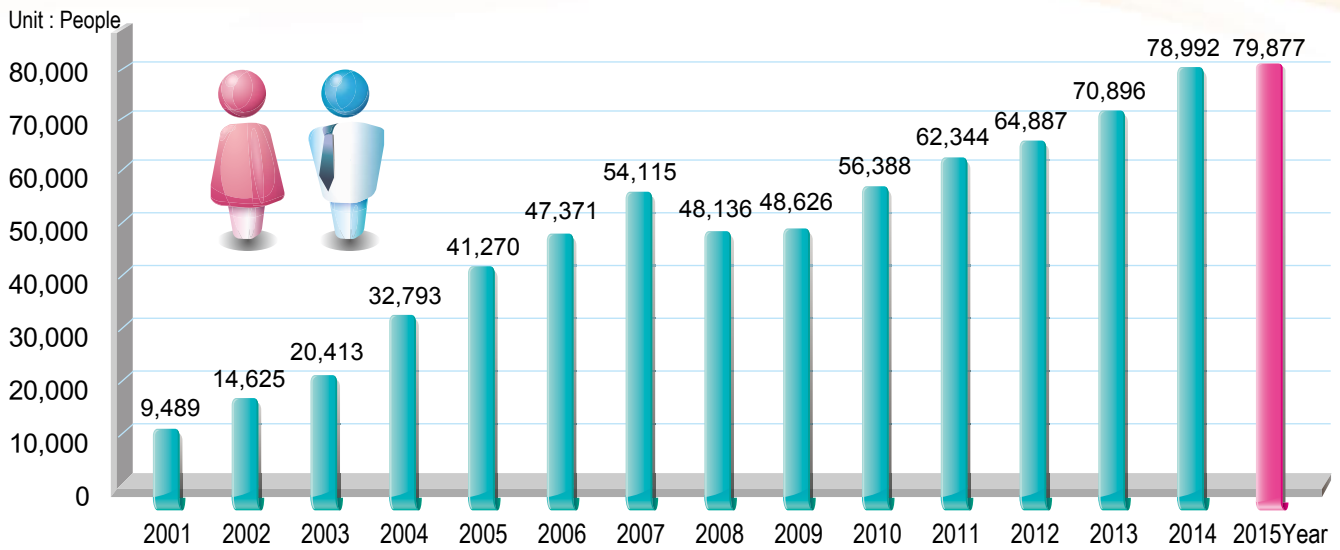

By the end of 2015, the number of Park employees reached 79,877, and compared to the end of 2014, there was a growth of 1.1% with 885 more hired. The investment rush at the STSP also attracted many skilled professionals to work at the STSP for their hometown.

Educational Background of the STSP Employees by the End of 2015

Number of the STSP Employees by Industry by the End of 2015

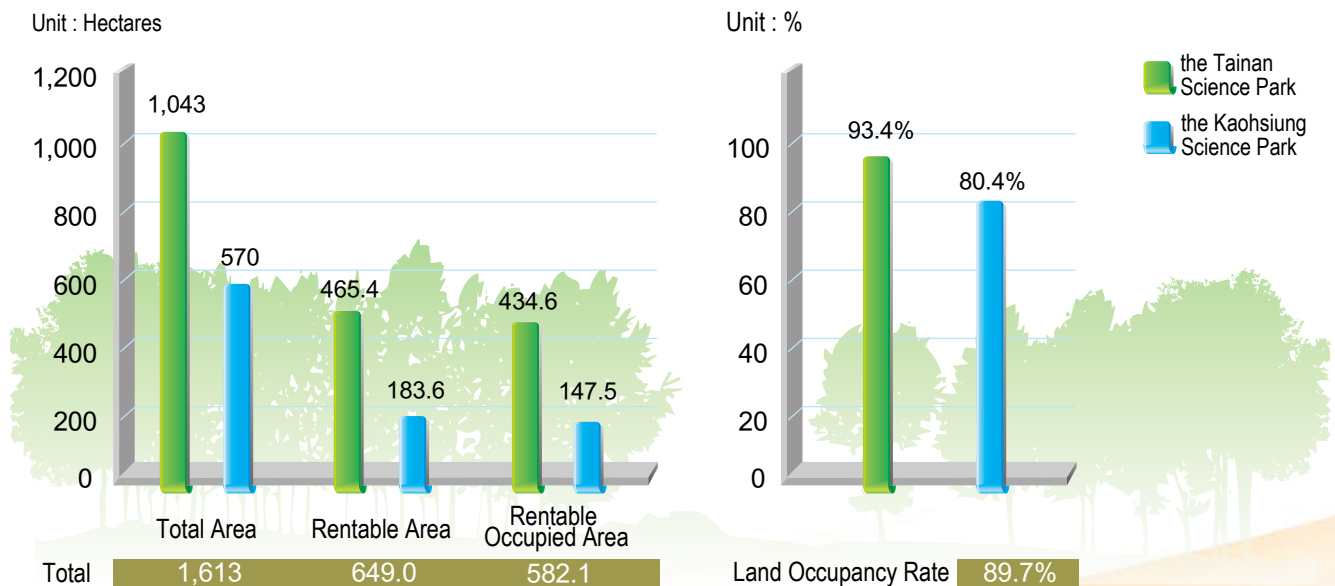

Number of the STSP Employees by Year

Continuous Growth of Land Occupant Rate

In 2015, six new Park enterprises leased out 18.23 hectares while 20 new Park enterprises rented 25 factory units, showing the trust of enterprises in the overall investment environment of the STSP.

By the end of 2015, the land occupancy rate was 93.4% at the TSP and 80.4% at the KSP. On average, the land occupancy rate at the STSP was 89.7%.

Land Lease by the End of 2015