

Fresh Local Produce Shared with Tainan Residents

In 2015, the "Local Food Ingredients" program focused on the promotion and matching with suppliers and consumers to jointly build local food ingredients consumption mechanism, renew local food ingredients contract and purchase information platform, facilitate information exchange, and attract businesses to organize more demonstrations and seminars. The STSPB will continuously support diverse development of local produce and create more business opportunities. With the promotion of matching and exchanging, we are able to achieve a win-win result.

Xingang Hall, the Combination of Art, Culture, and Religion

Xingang Hall worships mainly Zhengang Martial God, a folk religious center in the STSP and Tree Valley Park. Floor 1 is the site of local cultural center which features the permanent exhibition areas of Siraya Culture and prehistorical materials. In 2015, five rounds of exhibitions were displayed by inviting famous artists and artist groups to exhibit their works. The Center also actively expanded its scope of art exhibitions by organizing joint exhibition of students' artworks from four junior high and elementary schools in Xinshi District.
